

Correspondence Pictures

Correspondence tasks require children to put one set of items in one-to many correspondence with another set. These cut-out objects along with 'small bricks' on the next sheet should be used to act out the stories.

For example "put the pretend tables (bricks) on the lorries".

