

The Weekend

Week 4 Book 9

It is the weekend. Dad likes to read the newspaper .
He is drinking black coffee and reading the football results.

Mum likes to go shopping in town. She has to go to the post-office.

She has lots to carry.

She has shopping bags and a handbag and the baby!

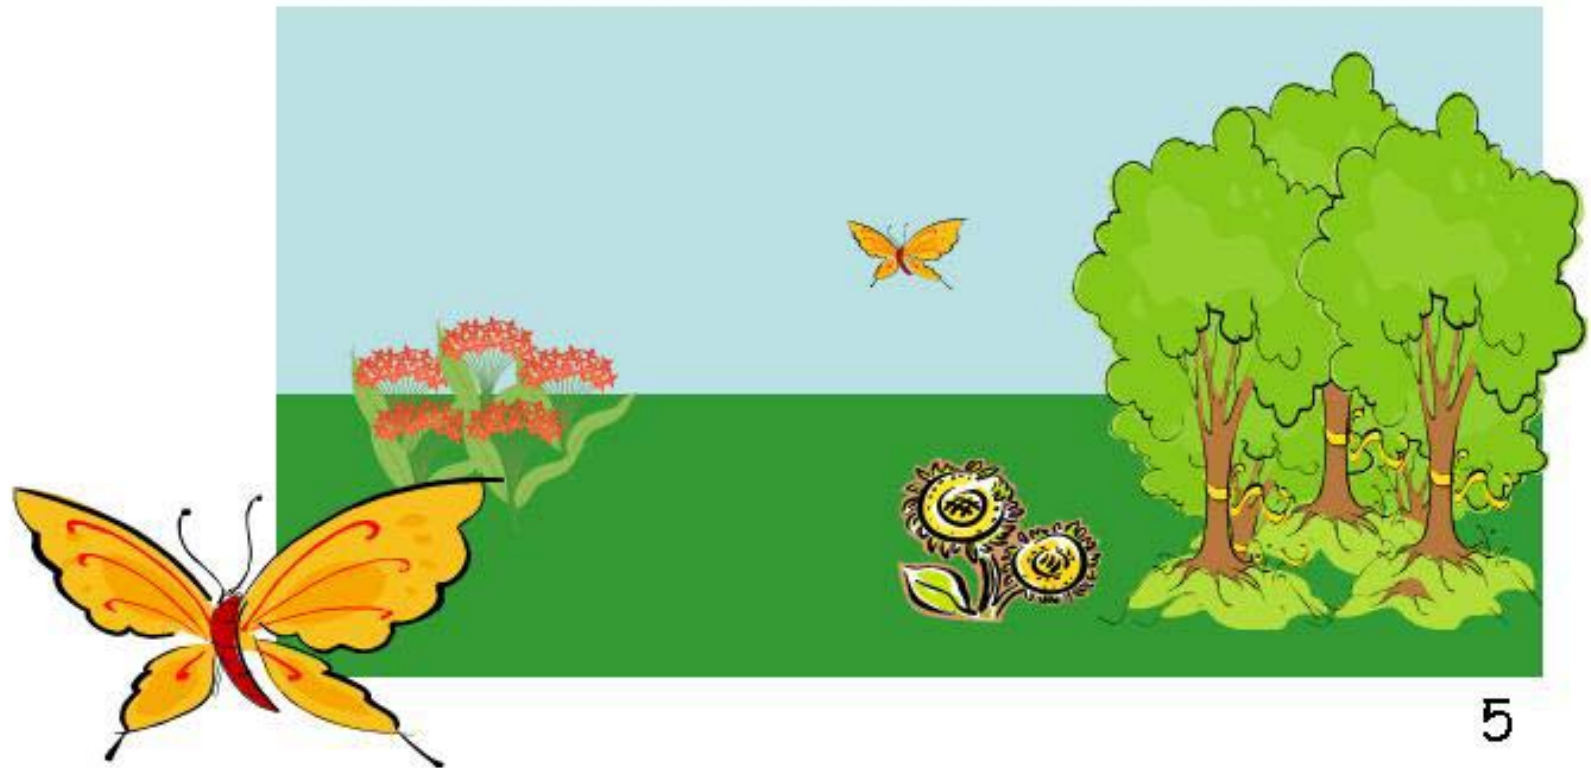

I like to be in the garden with Grandma. The sun is shining today so we put on sunhats! We plant some small seeds.

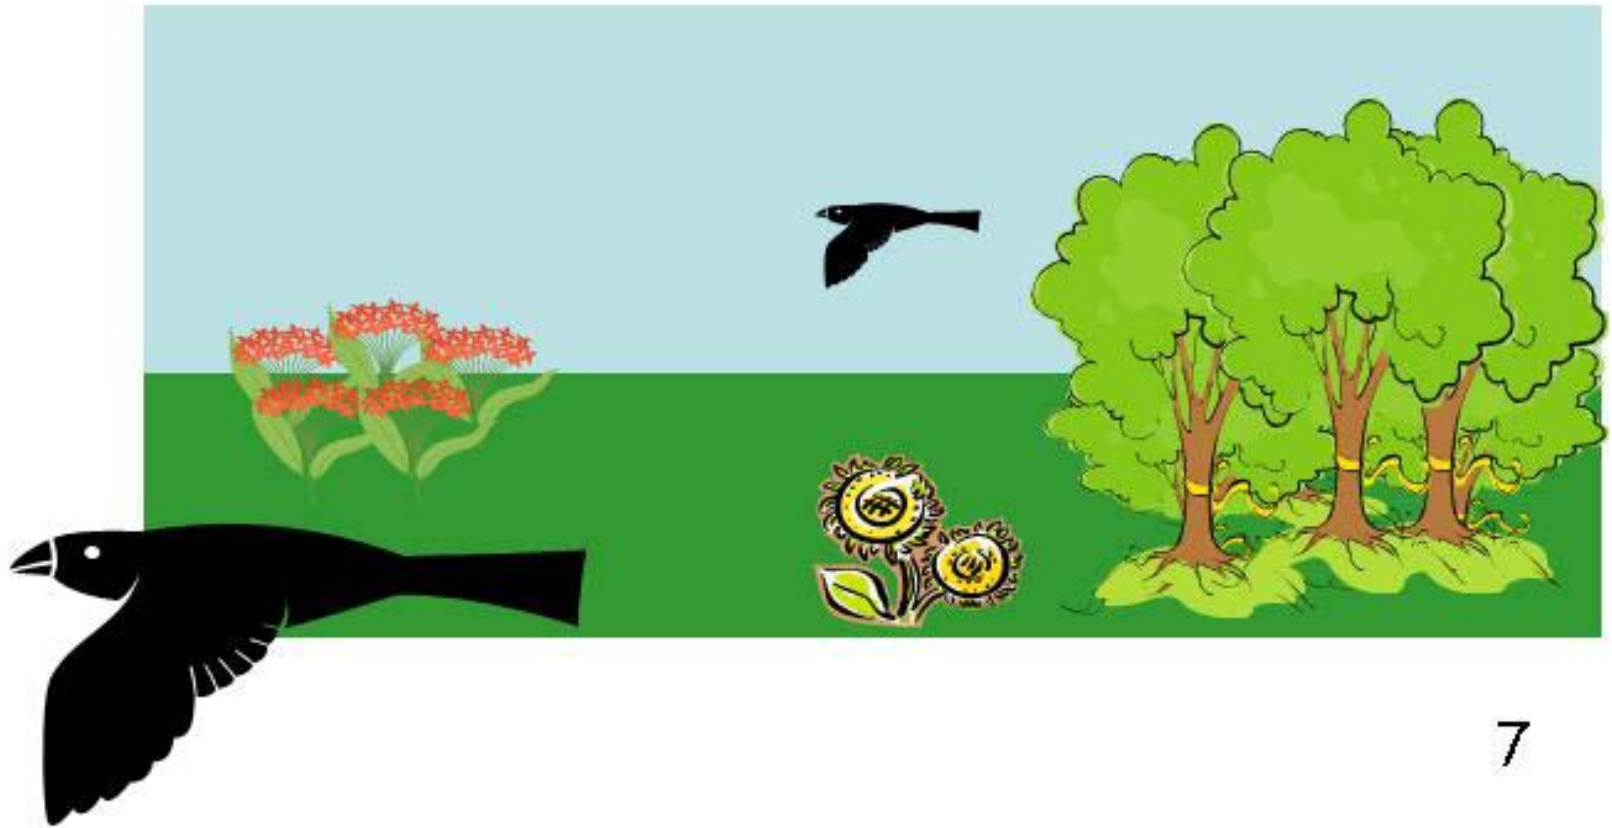

At lunchtime we have a delicious picnic in the garden.
We have crusty bread, red apples, orange squash and lemon cupcakes.
We put it on the picnic rug.

A pretty orange butterfly flies quietly into the garden !
It likes the red flowers because they have a beautiful smell.
It likes the big yellow sunflowers too.

A blackbird flies across the garden.
It likes the cool trees. It is very quiet and peaceful in my garden.

Then my older brother arrives!
He likes to play football with his best friend. They are very noisy!
The butterfly and the blackbird quickly fly away.

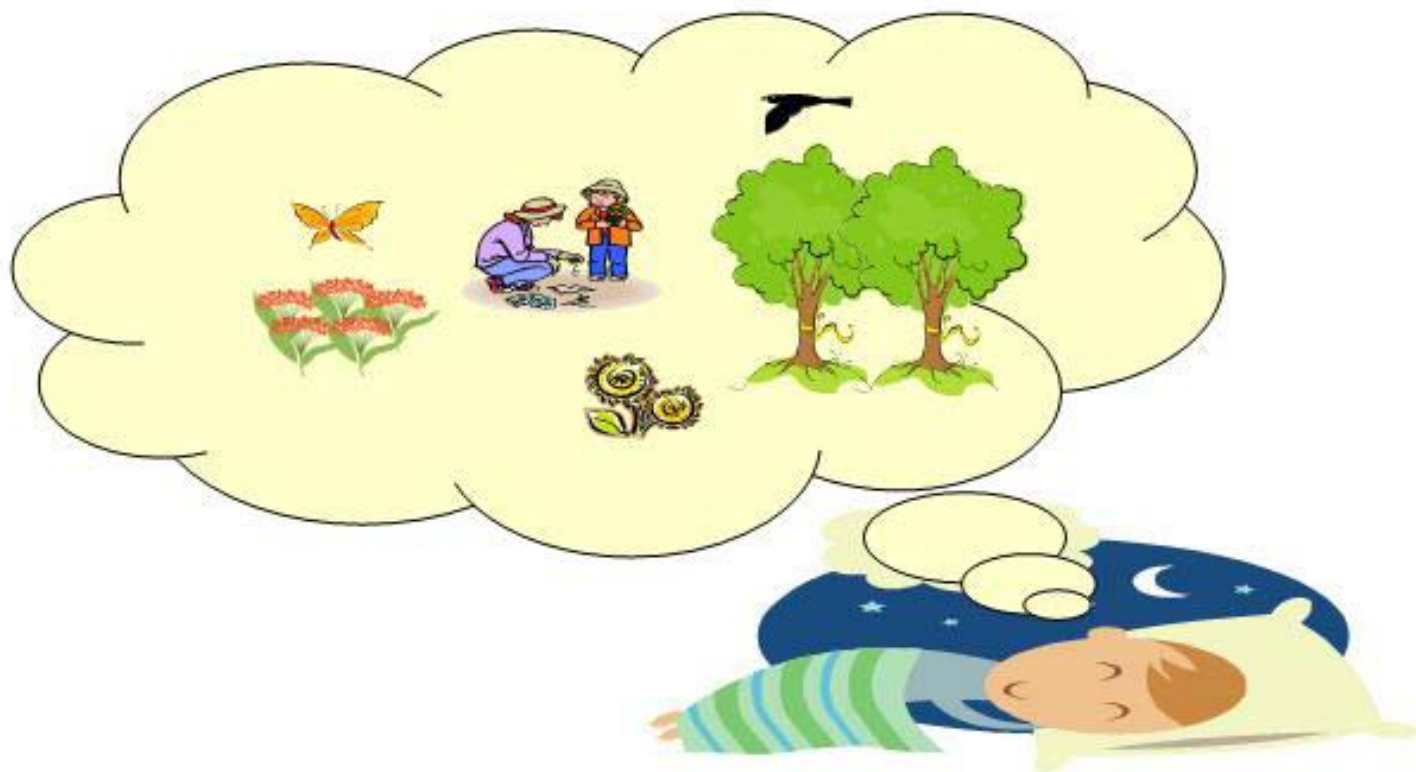

Then it suddenly starts to rain! We need raincoats now, not sunhats.

The sunny weekend is over! There are big grey rain-clouds in the sky.

It is bedtime. I put on my nightclothes and I dream about the sunny day in the garden.

The End!

Can you write down all the compound words
you can find in this book?